HKBU's commitment to quality teaching and learning is evidenced in our mission statement and in our Vision 2020 Strategic Themes. The University is honoured and privileged to have a group of enthusiastic and devoted teachers who not only cultivate the best learning environment in class, they also spend time with students outside class time and assist them to develop the seven HKBU graduate attributes through various learning activities.

We are honoured to have invited two of our outstanding teachers – Dr Min LI and Professor Chris WONG, recipients of our President's Award in Outstanding Teaching, and our representatives for the UGC Teaching Awards 2013, to share with us their exemplary teaching strategies and pedagogies they have adopted to motivate student to learn.

A certificate presentation ceremony, officiated by our President/VC and VP (Academic) will precede the sharing to recognise and highlight Dr Li's and Professor Wong's efforts in promoting teaching excellence in the University.
