Generate Analytics Graphs

1

You can generate the following analytics graphs
- Grades chart
- Content accesses
- Number of active students
- Assignment submissions
- Turnitin submissions
- Hits distribution

Go to your course page, Edit settings in "Actions" ⚙

2

Select "Reports" in the course administration page

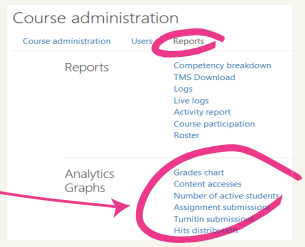
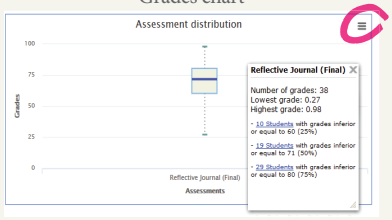
According to your needs, you can generate different analytics graphs



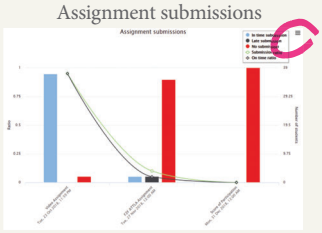
3

Grades chart



This chart displays a list of all assessments in the Moodle course, with the distribution of student's

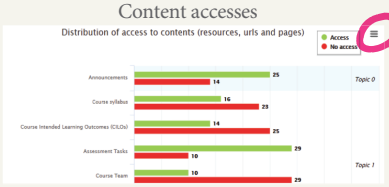
Assignment submissions



This chart displays the status of the student assignment submission

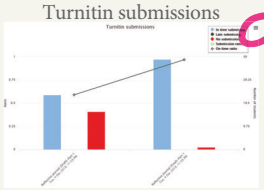
You are able to download the chart in different format by clicking the button at the top right of the each chart. (excluding Hits distribution)

Content accesses



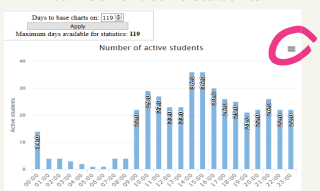
This chart displays the number of access of each activity in Moodle course.

Turnitin submissions



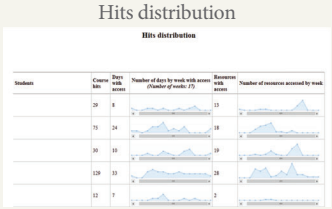
This chart displays the status of the students Turnitin assignments submission

Number of active students



This chart displays the number of students who access the Moodle course in different time slots.

Hits distribution



This chart displays the hit distribution of the Moodle course from each student.